MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION OF FUND PERFORMANCE

Frank Value Fund Letter to Shareholders

The Frank Value Fund enjoyed positive returns for the year ended June 30, 2024, benefiting from favorable market conditions.

Strategy

Frank Capital Partners, LLC, the advisor to the Frank Value Fund, employs a focused strategy targeting small and mid-cap equities trading at low absolute valuations while growing earnings and/or possessing a catalyst to raise the valuation. The advisor searches for qualitative metrics such as excellent management teams, high marginal returns on capital, sustainable competitive advantages, and shareholder friendliness. Value-unlocking catalysts include material share repurchases, sustainably high dividend yields, potential for merger or acquisition, and index addition.

Techniques

The advisor's security selection approach of low-valuation, high-quality, and unlocking catalysts also boosted returns. Information below provides some more detailed descriptions of catalyst-driven allocations employed during the year.

NRG Energy

The advisor initiated a position in NRG in July of 2023 at an average price of $37. The market valued the company at $8 billion. Management committed to a $2.7 billion stock repurchase for 2024 and 2025, roughly 11% of shares outstanding per year, in addition to paying a 4% dividend. This combines to a greater than 15% "shareholder yield" which is superior to most other investment opportunities and a focus of Frank Capital Partners' strategy. As of June 30, 2024, NRG trades at $77.86, returning about 110% for the Frank Value Fund. The advisor has trimmed NRG but currently maintains a core position.

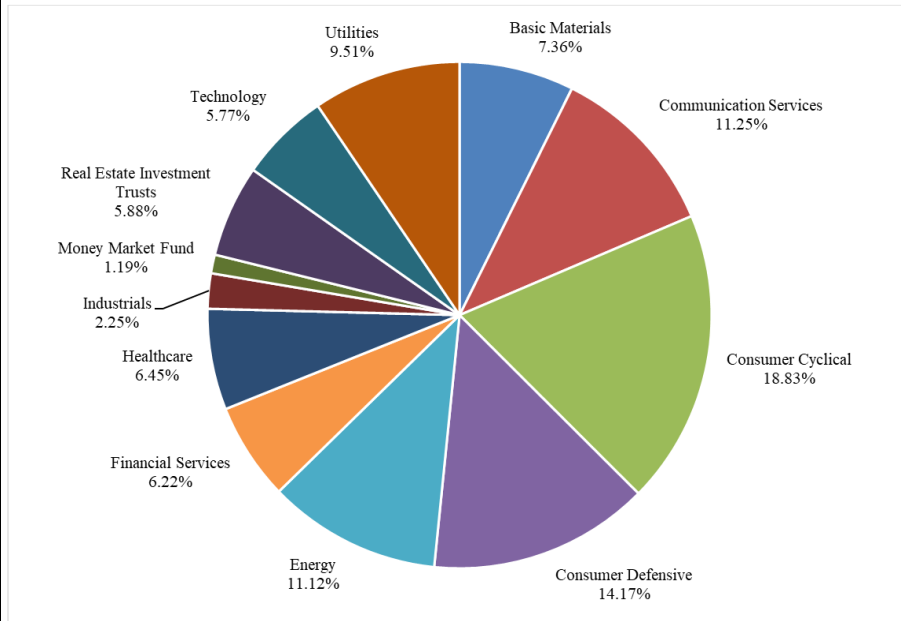

Ebay

The advisor initiated a position in Ebay in December 2023 at an initial price of $41. The market valued the company at $21 billion, while waiting for a $4 billion asset sale to close. Additionally, Ebay produces upwards of $2 billion of free cash flow per year, and management is extremely shareholder friendly, repurchasing nearly 8% of shares outstanding and paying over a 2% dividend yield. This combines to a greater-than 10% "shareholder yield" which is superior to most other investment opportunities and a focus of Frank Capital Partners' strategy. As of June 30, 2024, Ebay traded at $53.72, returning about 30% for the Frank Value Fund. The advisor is maintaining its position in Ebay currently.

We sincerely thank you for being a shareholder of the Frank Value Fund and look forward to working for you in the future.
